Tonya Lutz designs a scrapbook page with colored pens, pencils, rubber stamps and inks by using a variety of techniques.

Make me Laugh

Supplies:

Faber-Castell Design Memory Craft

- Mixed Media Samplers of Blue, Red, Yellow and Green

- ART GRIP Aquarelle Watercolor pencils Yellow and Red
- Gelato blue/green & red/yellow packs
- PITT Artist pen black, S
- Graphite pencil & eraser
- Paint brush

Others:

- 12"x12" Yellow Cardstock
- 8.5"x11" Kraft cardstock
- 9"x12" Watercolor paper
- Unity Stamps
- Trimmer
- Circle punches
- Adhesive

Step-by-step instructions:

1. Die-cut or hand cut or punch four tags from watercolor paper.
2. On the largest tag, stamp the monkey using the yellow Stamper's Big Brush from the Mixed Media Sampler.
3. On the other tags, use the red, blue and green Stamper's Big Brush respectively as shown.
4. Cut an 8.5"x8.5" square from kraft cardstock. Holding it upright, run the dark blue Gelato from the blue-green gelato pack along all four edges of the cardstock.
5. Blend it in working from the edges inward with your fingers.
6. Use Big Brush to tint strings on tags.
7. Use Gelatos to edge tags.
8. Attach 4"x6" photo and the tags around it to the kraft cardstock.
9. Attach the whole piece to a textured yellow cardstock.
10. Along the edges of this yellow background cardstock, doodle a simple border with PITT Artist pen black Superfine.
11. Fill in this border with the PITT artist pen, Orange Glaze 113 from the PITT® artist pens: YELLOW pack.
12. Punch several circles in various sizes from watercolor paper.
13. Use Gelatos and Aquarelle pencils to color the central part of each circle and lightly blend each with a little water and a paintbrush.
14. Print out hidden journal text on watercolor paper. Use Aquarelle pencils to color over text. Use wet paintbrush to release color. Let dry and then cut out in strips. Tuck behind monkey tag to complete the page.
